General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church

IN SESSION IN NEW YORK CITY.

One Hundred and First Annual Meeting. Two and a Half Million People Represented—Proceedings of Other Religious Gatherings.

NEW YORK, May 17.—The general assembly of the Presbyterian church in the United States opened its session with prayer in the Rev. Dr. Howard Crosby's church on Fourth avenue. The edifice was crowded. Altogether there were 480 delegates representing twenty-eight synods, or state districts, of the Presbyterian church. These synods are divided into 210 presbyteries, representing 6,500 churches with 700,000 communicants and a total population of 2,500,000. This year's assembly is the 101st.

It is probable that in accordance with a custom inaugurated one hundred years ago, in Washington's time, an address will be prepared and sent to President Harrison upon the state of the country. At the morning's meeting the retiring moderator, Rev. C. L. Thompson, D.D., preached a sermon.

A public reception will be tendered the delegates at the Metropolitan opera house by the Presbyterian union of New York this evening. Many public meetings will be held during the continuance of the convention in the various Presbyterian churches. Among the speakers will be Hon. George S. Graham, B. C. Atterbury, M. D., of Pekin, China, and Col. E. F. Shepard.

At the afternoon session Charles A. Dickey, of Philadelphia, Dr. Roberts, of Chicago, and Dr. John M. Worrall, of New York, were placed in nomination of moderator, and Dr. Roberts was elected. On taking the chair he expressed his sense of the honor conferred. Rev. Howard Crosby then presented the report of the committee on arrangements, which provides for two business sessions daily, and gatherings without transaction of business in the evenings.

Presbyterians at Chattanooga.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., May 17.—The general assembly of the Presbyterian church, met in its twenty-eighth annual session in this city yesterday at 11 o'clock. After an opening sermon by the retiring moderator, Rev. Dr. Bullock, of Washington, D. C., the assembly proceeded to permanent organization. Rev. Dr. J. G. Hill, of North Carolina; Rev. G. D. Armstrong, of Norfolk, Va., and Rev. Dr. J. G. Woodrow, of Columbia, S. C., were put in nomination for moderator. Objection was raised by Mr. James Lyon, a lay delegate from Richmond, Va., to Dr. Woodrow, because of his belief in the evolution theory of the origin of the race, charging him with insubordination and failure to submit to the action of the last general assembly. In support of this charge he read several editorials and extracts from Dr. Woodrow's paper, criticising the action of the last assembly.

At the conclusion of Mr. Lyon's talk Dr. Woodrow arose, trembling with emotion and excitement, and said: "I pronounce that statement wholly incorrect." Mr. Lyon leaped to his feet and began to emphasize what he said before, when the moderator interfered and called him to order and quiet was restored. The assembly then adjourned until 3 o'clock.

Upon reassembling, Mr. Woodrow arose and in a brief address, in which he declared his loyalty to the Presbyterian church, declining the charge of insubordination, and claiming that he had submitted to one part of the decision of the general assembly, maintained that he had a right as an individual to hold his opinion and would do so. He then withdrew his name as a candidate, and the others also withdrawing, Dr. J. G. Hill was elected moderator viva voce. Rev. Dr. West, of Mississippi, and Rev. R. E. Caldwell, of Kentucky, were elected clerks. By invitation Rev. Wilbur F. Craft addressed the assembly on "The Sabbath and Its Proper Observance."

The subject of foreign missions was set for special order for next Tuesday night. Last night the assembly listened to an address from Rev. Dr. Witherpoon on "New Orleans of the Seaman's Bethel." After which the assembly adjourned for the day.

It is believed that the matter with regard to Dr. Woodrow will not be brought up again during the sitting of the assembly. The question of the unification of the two assemblies will probably come up Monday and is looked forward to with great interest.

United Brethren.

YORK, Pa., May 17.—The morning's session of the United Brethren's conference was presided over by Bishop Dickson. After the reading of several committee reports, the following message, to be forwarded to President Harrison, was adopted and referred to committee on correspondence:

YORK, Pa., May 16. To Benjamin Harrison, Washington, D. C. MR. PRESIDENT—The general conference of the church of the United Brethren, in Christ, now in session in this city, send Christian greeting to you and yours. The 130 members of the conference come to you, not as applicants for office, which we do not want and could not accept, but as sincere petitioners to God for your continued welfare, hoping that He will make your administration of public affairs the wisest and purest the nation has ever enjoyed.

C. J. B. BRANE, S. MILLS, L. W. STAHL.

Resolutions were also adopted, extending greeting to the general assembly of the Presbyterian church and declaring that the United Brethren church had no connection with the United Brethren Mutual Aid society.

The following general bishops were re-elected: J. Dickson, D.D.; N. Castle, D.D.; J. Weaver, D.D., and E. B. Kephart. Rev. G. Sickafosse received fifty votes on the second ballot for the bishopric of the Pacific coast. Sixty-three votes is necessary to select. A recess was then taken.

Upon reassembling, the conference elected Rev. J. W. Holt bishop for the Pacific coast.

The Color Question Decided.

LYNCHBURG, Va., May 17.—The state council of the Protestant Episcopal church, which is in session here, determined two important questions that have been agitating the members of that faith for a very long time. One was whether or not the word "white" as pertaining to representation by delegates in the council should find a place in the constitution; the other as to the advisability of changing the name of the church, this latter question being mooted in various states.

Upon the first question there was a great deal of discussion. The convention contained many members who were in favor of obliterating the color line in the Christian church and so expressed themselves. They held that the colored men who professed the faith of the Protestant Episcopal church possessed the right and was entitled to admission to its council as an enrolled member thereof. It was a shame they asserted that after the negro had been released from physical bondage by the will of the people of this great nation and placed upon equality with all other citizens, in the church of the God who created all men and made them equal, it be recorded that only people of white skin were his elect.

The opposing majority contended that the heavy hand of time alone could obliterate the color line. The inequality of the negro was of the duration of thousands of years, and it will require the work of years to fit the negro for a place among the Caucasians.

The vote was then taken, and resulted 124 in favor of having the word "white" in the constitution, and 63 against. This effectually disposes of a vexed question, and debars the negro from a place in the council of the church.

In the matter of the proposed changing of the name of the church it was unanimously voted that this council was opposed to any change whatsoever.

RAILROAD SMASHUP.

Eight Men Seriously Injured in a Collision Near Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURG, May 17.—Early yesterday morning a passenger train on the Pittsburgh, Virginia and Charleston railroad, while going at a high rate of speed, collided with a gravel train standing on the main track, near Ormsby station.

At 6:45 o'clock in the morning, Conductor David Morris of the gravel train ordered his crew to run the train to an excavation in the hillside near Ormsby station, where a number of laborers were at work. Just as the gravel train rounded the curve above the station a freight train heavily loaded with iron ore crashed into it. Several cars were smashed to splinters.

Eight persons, all employees of the road, were injured.

Conductor Morris received a gash in his head and a severe bruise on his hip. John Peter, laborer, aged 45, married, fatally injured; both legs broken, side crushed in and otherwise badly bruised.

John Uherst, laborer, aged 40, married, head badly cut, skull fractured, very seriously injured.

John Spadlers, aged 46, laborer, back broken; otherwise injured.

Thomas Hackett, laborer, arms broken and face cut.

Mr. Maloney, laborer, shoulder and arm broken, side injured.

Mike Reardon, leg mashed.

Another man, name not learned, had his arm broken.

Several other laborers received less severe injuries.

THE OLD, OLD STORY.

A Cincinnati Woman Resorts to a Pistol in a Love Affair.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 17.—A sensational shooting, in which love played a prominent part, took place yesterday afternoon. Miss Mary Woodbury, a Sunday-school teacher from Cincinnati, shot and severely wounded Henry Menke, also of Cincinnati.

It was the same old story. Menke had been paying attention to Miss Woodbury, and they were engaged to be married. Menke seemed to tire of his love, and tried to break off the match. This the lady would not consent to. Menke then disappeared, coming to this city.

Last Monday Miss Woodbury followed him, and yesterday afternoon met him on West Walnut street. They talked earnestly a while, then Miss Woodbury suddenly pulled a pistol and sent a bullet into his anatomy. Menke is not seriously hurt. He lived at 115 Poplar street, Cincinnati. Miss Woodbury was arrested, and said she intended to kill herself.

Inquiries About Bishop's Death.

NEW YORK, May 17.—Coroner Levy has ordered the funeral of the mind reader, Bishop, postponed until an official inquiry is made as to whether death had occurred before the autopsy was begun.

Oil Cloth Works Damaged.

TRENTON, N. J., May 17.—The Trenton oil cloth works were partially burned this morning, entailing a loss of $30,000; partly covered by insurance. The works were the largest of the kind in the east.

Two Valuable Checks.

BOSTON, May 17.—Boston is in receipt of two checks aggregating $2,500,000 in payment for the Jones breweries. The checks are drawn on a New York bank.

The German Miners.

A Prospect That They Will Soon Resume Work.

THE TROUBLE COMPROMISED.

Emperor William's Interference Had a Great Deal to Do Towards Effecting the Settlement—Queen Victoria to Visit Ireland—Other Foreign News.

BERLIN, May 17.—Efforts to arrive at a compromise in the miners strike are proceeding so satisfactorily that it is thought probable a general resumption of work will take place by Tuesday. The emperor, in an address to a delegation of employers, said that the main point seemed to him to be to bring the strikes to an end, leaving the questions at issue to be settled while peace and order prevailed and while production was proceeding.

He had spoken plainly to the workmen on the subject, warning them to hold aloof from socialist intrigues. "Telegrams from Westphalia," he added, "announce that my words have been favorably received. The healthy, patriotic feeling manifested by the workmen's delegation inspires me with confidence that they will do all possible to bring their comrades back to work as soon as possible. I have urged the mining companies to maintain henceforth as close touch as possible with their workmen. I am anxious that the dispute be brought to a favorable issue."

The emperor also evinced a very kind disposition toward the workmen, and said he hoped the companies would consider their welfare.

After the audience, a conference was held between delegates of the miners, and Herr Hammacher, member of the reichstag, who represented the mine owners. The result was a provisional agreement on a basis of eight hours work per day, exclusive of the time occupied in descending and ascending pits; the abolition of compulsory overtime, and an increase of wages according to local circumstances. The directors of the Weimer collieries have convened a meeting for Saturday to consider the proposed settlement.

Hundreds of the striking miners at Essen have been sworn in as special police at their own request in order to keep their fellow workmen from rioting, and thus spoiling their hopes of the mine-owners' concession. Many of the miners at Dortmund resumed work yesterday without opposition from the strikers. The owners are now treating with the men, and the strikes will probably soon be settled.

The Queen to Visit Ireland.

LONDON, May 17.—It is again rumored that the queen will visit Ireland and remain there a week with the hope of creating a reaction in favor of the government by her royal presence. The same report says that she will hold a drawing room at Dublin castle, and review the Irish troops at Curragh of Kildare. The Curragh of Kildare is a tract of crown land where reviews yearly take place and where races are run. The queen's presence in Ireland will undoubtedly give an impetus to loyal Toryism there, but Irishmen generally are of the opinion that a little royal interest shown in the sufferings of the queen's starving subjects would effect more good than a drawing room at the castle, at which only the aristocrats will be represented.

Powder Magazine Exploded by Lightning.

BERLIN, May 17.—The powder magazine of the Fortress of Konigsstein, in Saxony, was exploded by lightning yesterday, during a thunder storm. The magazine contained a large quantity of powder and thousands of shells. Fortunately none of the garrison was hurt. The explosion, which was tremendous, broke windows in the villages adjacent and shook the ground like an earthquake. The fortress is situated on a rock 450 feet high, and has always been impregnable.

Expelled Nihilists.

LONDON, May 17.—The remainder of the Nihilists who have been expelled from Zurich on account of being suspected of plotting against the czar, will leave immediately after being released from arrest, and take up their abode in England and France. Demsky, one of the suspects, is still in the hospital at Zurich. He denies that the bombs which were found were intended for the czar.

Preparing to Meet Our Minister.

LONDON, May 17.—Preparations are making to receive Mr. Robert T. Lincoln, the new American minister to England. Consul Russell, of Liverpool, will meet Minister Lincoln in a special tug in the Mersey river. A number of prominent Americans will accompany the consul. Mr. Lincoln will be taken ashore by his friends and a reception and banquet will follow.

Pigott Had His Life Insured.

LONDON, May 17.—It is stated that Pigott had an insurance of $5,000 on his life in the English and Scottish law life offices and as it had been running over five years the fact of suicide will not invalidate it.

Boulanger's Illness.

LONDON, May 17.—It is stated on the continent that an English physician has found Gen. Boulanger to be suffering from diabetes in an advanced stage and has ordered him to Vichy or Carlsbad.

Terrible Domestic Tragedy.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., May 17.—James Down, of Matley, cut his wife's head open with an ax, killing her instantly. He then made an unsuccessful attempt to kill his daughter, and finally committed suicide by cutting his throat. Domestic trouble led to the tragedy.

LOVE, WEALTH AND BEAUTY.

Jacob L. Doty, American Consul to Tahiti, to Wed a Rich Princess.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—About a year ago President Cleveland transferred Jacob L. Doty from the consulate at Bermuda to that of Tahiti, Society islands, and congratulations are in order. Mr. Doty is to marry a beautiful and charming inhabitant of Papeti, the object of his affection being no less a personage than Princess Poloma of Tahiti.

The princess is a beautiful and accomplished lady, about 18 years of age, and a most perfect blonde. She is the daughter of Lord and Lady D'Arcy, her mother, Lady D'Arcy, being a native Tahitian princess, and her father an English nobleman of distinguished ancestry. Princess Poloma has had all the advantages of a continental education in France and Germany, also in England.

She is the possessor of immense wealth, being in her own right the largest property owner on the islands, with vast cocoa plantations and pearl fisheries valued at millions of dollars, and further receives a large annuity from France under treaty stipulation.

As may naturally be supposed the princess has not lacked many suitors for her fair hand, all of whom, including the Earl of Dudley, she has persistently refused. Consul Doty is but 22 years of age, of superior ability, and has worked his own way to position and fame. As a boy he was a page in the United States senate, where he won the good opinions of senators generally, especially of Senator Bayard. This fact undoubtedly was very influential with Bayard in appointing Mr. Doty, an ardent Republican, to Tahiti.

Mr. Doty comes from a distinguished family. His father, now deceased, was a prominent citizen of Brooklyn. His mother, Mrs. A. L. Doty, is now living in this city. Mrs. Doty was the granddaughter of Lord Melbourne, and her English antecedents were relatives of Charles Lamb, the McPhersons, Wallaces, and other families of note in Great Britain.

SEVEN HUNDRED HOUSES

Destroyed at Quebec, Canada, Making

Homeless Twelve Hundred Families.

QUEBEC, May 17.—Fire broke out early yesterday morning in St. Saviour, in the house of Mrs. McCann, on Vatie street. The flames spread with great rapidity through the wooden district.

While the military were preparing to blow up some houses to check the spread of the flames a premature explosion took place in one of the houses, killing Maj. Short and Sergt. Wallack, of Battery B. Both were buried in the ruins.

At 4:30 p. m. the fire had burned itself out, after reaching the limits of St. Saviour. The district north and west of Massue and St. Ambrose streets has been swept clean, with the exception of a portion of Vatie street. About 700 houses were burned. As many of them were tenements, the number of families homeless is not less than 1,200, comprising 5,000 or 6,000 persons. Hon. Mr. Mercier and other prominent men are interesting themselves in behalf of the homeless people. Application has been made to Sir A. P. Caron for the use of a drill shed and other government buildings to shelter those whose who are yet camped out in fields. The clergy are distributing food, and steps are being taken to organize a regular system of relief. The majority of the people burned out are of the laboring class, and, as insurance rates were very high, few have anything to fall back upon.

St. Saviour is a separate municipality from Quebec, but is separated from this city by only the width of a street. It has a population of about 15,000. Only Wednesday night the St. Saviour officials refused an offer of this city to supply them with water.

The total loss by the fire is estimated at $600,000. The insurance is $130,000, the largest losses being Guardian, $12,500; Agriculture, of Watertown, N. Y., $35,000; North British and Mercantile, $12,000; Glasgow and London, $20,000. If the wind had been from any other quarter all St. Roch's might have gone. As it was St. Saviour is badly swept up to its farthest end.

It was generally supposed that Sergeant Wallack died immediately after being taken from the ruins, but it has been learned that he is still alive in the marine hospital. He is very seriously injured and is not likely to recover.

The Dominion government, having been appealed to, has placed the new armory and the old court house at the disposal of the victims of the fire. Premier Mercier and several other gentlemen have visited the scene and supplied the poorer people with food.

Attempt to Wreck a Train.

GREENFIELD, Mass., May 17.—An attempt was made last night to wreck the westbound passenger train near Shelburne Falls, which place it leaves at 10:52 o'clock. The trackwalker found a pile of sleepers on the track at a sharp curve. When he attempted to remove them he was vigorously stoned. He ran to Shelburne Falls, secured assistance and cleared the track before the arrival of the train. Had the obstruction remained a smashup, probably attended by loss of life, would have resulted.

A Bridge Builder Killed.

HAGERSTOWN, Md., May 17.—Mr. Sylvester Cable, of Toledo, O., a young man in the employ of the Toledo Bridge company, was killed at Schlosser's bridge across the Antietam river near Keedysville, yesterday.

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
 Proprietors.

FRIDAY, MAY 17, 1889.

The Republicans wouldn't have been so anxious to make Montana a State had they known it was so close politically. It is now conceded that the Democrats will control the approaching constitutional convention.

The Florida Republicans are decidedly averse to President Harrison sending any "outsider" down there to fill one of the best offices in the State. They believe in a home-rule policy when it comes to dishing out the spoils. Hence their vigorous "kick" against Gilkeson, of Pennsylvania.

The days of the jute bagging trust will soon be numbered if the Farmer's Alliance of the South will stick to their resolution to use cotton bagging. It will require 125,000 bales of cotton to make enough bagging to cover the entire crop. The trouble is that a cotton bagging trust may soon be formed, and the farmers will be no better off than before.

PRESIDENT HARRISON has so far ignored the German-American Republicans in the distribution of the offices and they are beginning to kick. The Milwaukee Herald, a German paper of influence, says editorially: "In spite of all devotion of the German-Americans to the Republican party, they have been ignored. President Harrison owes it to himself and his party to give satisfactory explanation why the German-American Republicans have received such treatment at his hands."

The late Judge McKee, of Covington, though a Republican, was not an advocate of the Republican tariff. The Commonwealth says "He regarded the existing tariff as an aggregation of unjust enactments, of the grossest inequalities, and designed for the benefit of the capitalist alone. To the repeated assertions of the friends of the tariff, that while it might need revision the work should be done by his friends, Judge McKee's answer was that the revision should come from the friends of the people."

If any Republican throughout the length and breadth of Kentucky is anxious to make the race for State Treasurer, he hasn't made it known. The convention will be held next week, at Louisville, and there will not be any scramble to secure the honor. The Louisville Times says: "Kenton, Carroll and Pendleton instructed their delegates for Robert Hamilton, of Covington, a tobacco manufacturer who fondly dreamed last fall that he was running for Congress against John G. Carlisle, until the biggest majority of all the district fell upon and awoke him to a realization of his error. He would make a nice, fat sheep for the August sacrifice."

INDIANA coal miners have had their wages reduced 20 per cent, and the present schedule is below that prevailing in England; there has been a reduction of wages in every branch of mining and nearly every branch of manufacturing industry in Pennsylvania; there have been reductions in New England, in New York, in New Jersey, in Illinois—in short all over the country—and yet, the blessed tariff, the palladium of our liberties and the salvation of our labor, was saved last November and the workingman's friends are holding the country up by the tail.—Louisville Times.

If the condition of the laborers of this country is any better than it was during the Democratic administration, the fact is not apparent to the closest observer. Harrison and the high tariff doesn't seem to insure workingmen big wages.

"Uncle Dick" Tate.

The recent report that Mr. Tate, ex-State Treasurer, is in California, has started the gossips again. A special from Frankfort says: "It is difficult to sift the truth from the false reports spread about Mr. Tate, but it is asserted by those who ought to know that he was in business in Australia for a while; that in January last he was seen to board a ship in Japan, the destination of which was not known, after which all communication or knowledge of him ceased. Even his wife, it is said, has not heard from him since that date. This assumption that he has been cruising about between Australia and Japan has given rise to the belief in many places that he has really fallen into the hands of the Sheriff of San Francisco.

"Prominent lawyers have said that if he should return they were satisfied that the law was not far-reaching enough to cover his case to the infliction of any punishment upon him, but on this question the Court of Appeals has not yet been heard from. Whether it be true or not, it may have tempted him to make the experiment. It must be confessed though, the Governor has received numerous letters from officials all over the county who were satisfied they had located the fugitive, and when descriptions of him were forwarded nothing more was ever heard from them on the subject."

Stock, Field and Farm.

Two weeks ago eight hogheads of tobacco were put on sale at the Globe House, in Louisville, but were rejected, as the price bid ranged from $5.55 to $8.70 a hundred. During the past week the same tobacco was sold, the owner realizing from $8.30 to $15 a hundred.

They are hauling baled prairie hay out to Russellville and other localities. The hay crop here last year was very poor, and the dry weather lately has impaired the prospects this year. Wheat was also injured, and it is feared that the stalks will be short and light.—Ripley Bee.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

MAYSVILLE.

There are a good many nice crops of tobacco yet unsold in this vicinity.

The crops of all kinds and vegetation are looking well since the late rains, but we need more rain yet.

G. W. Blatterman, Jr., was here last Wednesday in the interest of his father's race for County Superintendent of Public Schools, and reports everything "lovely and the goose hanging high."

J. A. Jackson is receiving this week another large invoice of new spring goods, among them all the late style dress goods. Give him a call. You can save money by buying a small bill of him.

Hon. L. W. Gubral, candidate for County Superintendent of Public Schools, smiled on this place last Wednesday. He is full of hope, and feels sanguine that on the 15th of June his friends will not forget him.

The funeral of James H. Anderson, who died so suddenly this week, took place on Tuesday morning at the Christian Church, where an appropriate sermon was delivered by the pastor, F. M. Tindler. A large concourse of friends followed the remains to our cemetery, where they were laid to rest by the side of those of Mr. Anderson's father and mother.

Workmen are busy after and repairing the Christian Church. The congregation will worship in the chapel of the school building during the time.

The private school of Miss Rhia Savage, near Fern Leaf, will close with public entertainments on next Saturday afternoon and Monday evening.

Some tobacco is being transplanted. While plants are irregular, some farmers having none and others more than enough to set their crop, there will be sufficient to insure the planting of an average crop with favorable weather.

Cowboys without whisky would be as harmless and inoffensive as the cattle they drive.

Mrs. Jas. B. Lashbrook gave an elegant dinner recently to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Farman, and a few other friends.

Our sprightly young friend, Thos. Parry, we understand, is now engaged as reporter on the Kansas City Times.

If the women of this country who are cursed with drunken, worthless husbands had their way with the liquor traffic it would soon be a thing of the past.

The only snake story which was ever fully confirmed, as far as we know, was also the strangest we ever heard. It was that of a young lady, now married and living not a great ways from here, who having gone to a neighborly brought one of the slow snakes coiled around her body concealed under the folds of her dress. She had felt something tightening around her, but paid no attention to it at the time, and on getting out she saw the snake's head showing plainly. She neither fainted nor screamed, but coolly had her escort disengage the reptile and returned it to the show.

IN MEMORY.

Of Mrs. Maggie Fulton, wife of Mr. W. M. Fulton, of Maysville, who died April 3rd, at 10 a.m., in the twenty-ninth year of her age. She was an affectionate daughter and a kind, loving wife. It is hard to realize that little more than four brief years have passed since we witnessed her a fair and loving bride. She was married on the 7th of April, 1885, and enjoyed all the festivities of a long and happy life before her. But, alas! how soon her joyous days are over. The 5th of April, the solemn season of Lent, the remains of Mrs. Fulton were brought to the Washington Cemetery. It seems as if God had prepared her soul for a purer and happier life than this world of sin. She left a devoted, loving husband and a dear infant son, but her dying words were that her little babe would not be long here after her, and her words came true. On the 10th of April her dear little babe went to her.

Weep not for her, by fleet or slow decay, It never grieved her heart—come to mark The friends of her childhood wane away. Her prospects wither and her hopes grow dark.

Her pleasant thoughts, soft as the scent of flowers, Rich as a rainbow with its hues of light, Sweet as the song of birds among the hawthorns, Pure as the moonshine of autumn night.

Low she lies who blest our eyes Through many a sunny day; She may not smile, she will not rise, The life hath passed away.

Weary and ready to lay down life's burden, Hear the sweet call, "Come and rest, Home to the waiting ones; home to thy guardian, Up in the home of the blest."

Weep for her not! She died in her youth, Ere hope had lost its rich romantic hues, When human hearts seemed the homes of truth, And earth still gleamed with beauty's radiant dews.

Victorious o'er death to her appears, So when a few, fleet swerving years have gone, The faded joy of heaven's eternal years— She will meet thee at heaven's gate and lead thee on.

Oh, she has left this world of sin, For God has opened his golden gate and gently gathered her in. Sunshine fled from our saddened home When she went forth from our longing sight.

Yet, we know that her soul is happy now, Where the saints their calm watch keep; The angels are crowning that fair young brow And, therefore, do not weep.

Shun the Sharpers

Confidence men and swindlers are fairly ravaging the country, and their chief victims are farmers. The number of new tricks they work are too manifold and confusing for us to remember and explain. But it is usually some buy-and-sell game, or the signing of some paper as a receipt or contract which afterwards turns out to be a note of hand for a large amount. The only way to come out ahead with these fellows is not to deal with strangers, especially those who want to do too much for you and offer you something for nothing. Sometimes you may make a mistake and turn away an honest man, but as a rule you will not. Lookout for those artful dodgers, and dodge them!—Ripley Bee.

The Portsmouth packet Bonanza will take the DeSoto's place in the Memphis trade to-morrow. The Portsmouth Blade says: "For several years the Portsmouth people have not patronized their Cincinnati packet as they should have done. They have shipped freight and taken passage on the night boat, and thus taken patronage from their own trade. The Portsmouth boat left $400 in the city every week, while the night boats left none. Gentlemen who are interested in marine matters and ought to know, inform us that the company would have been justified in abandoning the trade long ago, but they preferred to lose money on the boat to leaving the trade vacant, and thus giving Portsmouth a black eye."

It is reported here, however, that the withdrawal of the Bonanza is only temporary. If she does not return to the trade another boat will be secured to take her place.

ALLEN THORNDIKE RICE DEAD.
The Newly Appointed Minister to Russia Dies Suddenly.
NEW YORK, May 17.—Allen Thorndike Rice, the newly appointed minister to Russia, died yesterday morning at the Fifth Avenue hotel, where he was a guest. Mr. Rice had been suffering from a throat affection for a few days past, but was not supposed to be in any danger. He intended to sail for Europe Wednesday in the Inman steamer City of Paris, but was compelled to delay his departure owing to sickness.

Mr. Rice died at 8:30 o'clock in the morning. There were with him at the time of his death James Sargent, his valet, of twenty years' standing; Henry Crisp, an experienced nurse; Dr. Goldthwaite and Dr. Fuller, who had been in attendance upon him for some time past. Dr. Fuller gives the following history of the case:

Mr. Rice has been ill during the entire spring, having been generally run down from overwork in preparing to go abroad. He took to his bed three or four days ago, suffering from tonsillitis. His tonsils had formerly given him considerable trouble, and had been clipped. There was a certain amount of ulceration apparent, with symptoms of quinsy.

Allen Thorndike Rice was born in Boston, Mass., June 18, 1853. At the age of 9 years he was taken abroad, and for five years he lived in Europe. In 1867 he returned to the United States and remained here until 1871, when he went to England and was graduated at Oxford in 1875. On his return to the United States he entered as a student at Columbia law school. In 1876 he bought The North American Review, of which he has since been the editor. He organized in 1879, and subsequently directed what is popularly known as the Chirney expedition, which was dispatched under the joint auspices of the United States and France, to investigate systematically the remains of ancient civilization in Central America and Mexico.

In 1884 he bought a controlling interest in "Le Matin," one of the chief papers of Paris. He was actively interested in politics, and in 1886 received a Republican nomination for congress, but was defeated by the local political leaders. A controversy succeeded, which resulted in the expulsion of Mr. Rice's opponents from the Republican organization. This event turned his attention to the Australian system of voting, which he was the first to recommend for adoption in the United States, and mainly owing to his advocacy a demand for ballot reform was incorporated in the platform of the Republican and United Labor parties in 1887. He has edited "Reminiscences of Abraham Lincoln," New York, 1886, and contributed to "Ancient Cities of the New World," 1887.

Another Official Dead.

LABOR TROUBLES.

Two Hundred Men Strike at Pittsburg. Strikes Elsewhere.

PITTSBURG, May 17.—Between former strikes at the Solar iron mills, the present difficulty at the Duquesne works, in which the firm of Clark & Company are largely interested, their experience has not been altogether pleasant. Yesterday morning the management were very much surprised at the unexpected absence of 200 of their employees. The only men at work were eighty-eight colored puddlers, and it needs but a word to draw them out also.

After eighteenth months outside of the union, the men expressed a wish to re-enter the Amalgamated association ranks. Meetings were held from time to time at which President Welles, of the Amalgamated association was present. The strikers were readmitted to the association yesterday.

Said one of the strikers: "Preparations for this step have been in progress for two months. We want more wages. That is our only object in coming out. What we want is right and that is all we expect to get."

Pattern Makers Adopt Eight Hours.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 17.—At the convention of the Pattern Makers' League of North America in session in this city, yesterday, resolutions were adopted, endorsing the eight hour question. It was agreed to hereafter abolish all piece work. This decision has been embodied in the league's constitution, and will go into effect as soon as subordinate lodges endorse the measure. Last night the delegates were banqueted by the local lodges.

Fears of a Riot.

DOVER, N. H., May 17.—When work was recommenced on the water works this spring, Alonzo Smith, who did the shooting in the Fourth street Italian riot here last June, was given charge. Trouble has been brewing for two weeks and a climax was reached yesterday, when sixteen Americans left work. Another riot is feared for the workmen swear vengeance on Smith. The works are a mile from the city.

Assuming Large Proportions.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 17.—Two thousand men employed by the National Tube works, at McKeesport, struck yesterday for 10 per cent. advance in wages. About 6,000 men of the company's employs threaten to join the strike.
